Martinmas and Handzarra Take the Handicaps-Prenta, 15 to 1, a Surprise-Coy Maid Carries Andrew Miller's Colors

to the Front at Gravesend Track.

Form was greatly in evidence at Gravesend yesterday, four favorites and a heavily backed second choice finishing in front. E. E. Smathers's Dick Bernard, the choice at 6 to 5, won the Seabreeze Stakes, for threeyear-olds at a mile and a sixteenth, but he was under a drive to beat The Southerner, 16 to 5, by three parts of a length. Seymour, 4 to 1, made the running for three-quarters of a mile, where Dick Bernard took command and looked as if he would win galloping. But in the stretch Redfern put a great ride on The Southerner, who was gaining on the Smathers colt at the end.
Seymour was third, three lengths away.
Martinnas, 2 to 1 favorite, who got away running, won the handicap for all ages at a mile and a sixteenth in a gallop by three lengths. Wotan, 7 to 2, beat Little Em, 18 to 5, three parts of a length for the place, both of them being greatly favored by the send-off. The others had no chance, as they were all practically left. The time was

Handzarra, the Western two-year-old filly, ran off with the handicap for all ages at about six furlongs. She was backed down to 9 to 2 and made all the running, but near the end of the trip Invincible, 9 to 1, came with such a great burst of speed that Crimmins had to ride her out to win by a scant length in 1:10 3-5. Invincible was the same margin in front of Toscan, 9 to 1, with the two-year-old Sir Brillar, 3 to 2, favorite, a half a length back. Ascension, well played, was left at the post, but ran a wonderful race and finished

David Gideon's Escutcheon, a hot favorite at 6 to 5, had a world of speed and after stand-ing the others on their heads took the second race, for two-year-olds, at about six furlongs, in a gallop, beating Sydney Paget's Jerry C. second choice, by three lengths in 1:11. Joe Yeager's Hildebrand, 10 to 1, was third, beating Confessor, 5 to 1, by a half a length in the last few jumps.

The fifth race, for maiden two-year-old fillies and geldings, went to Andrew Miller's Coy Maid. 7 to 5 favorite, who was under a drive from Hildebrand, with James R. Keene's Sumatre, 7 to 1, three parts of a length behind her. The latter came from nowhere in the stretch after a poor send-off and finished a length and a half in front of Bravery, a a length and a finit in Iron to bristy, and to 1 shot. Salt and Pepper was less than a length away. The time was 1:10.

Proceeds, widely played at threes, and Gay Lothario were as good as left in the last race, for platers at a mile and a sixteenth, while Pronta, a 15 to 1 shot, was off swinging. never to be caught, and winning by a length and a half from Gravina, 2 to 1 favorite. Little Em, who started for the second time during the day, was again third, a length behind. The time was 1:49. Fully 12,000 persons were in attendance.

This will be Harvard's first game this year, and as the outlook at Cambridge is probably the brightest of any college, Crimson's work will be watched closely. Yale tackles rather easy opposition in Trinity, and is likely to have out a stronger team than faced Wesleyan last Wednesday. Wesleyan will be Columba's opponent to-day, and her score against the Methodists will come in for the inevitable comparison with Yale's 22 to 0 against Wescomparison with Yale's 22 to 0 against Wes-leyan, though the scores in themselves mean little as comparisons. Interesting games are promised at Princeton, where the unawed Georgetown men will play, and at Philadelphia, where the lively Virginians will look horns with the Quakers. The schedule:

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR GRAVESEND. Oriental and Prospect Handicaps Are the Peatures.

The Brooklyn Jockey Club's meeting at Gravesend will wind up to-day with a splen-did list of attractions. The Oriental Handicap, at a mile and a quarter, is the star event even though Beldame, who received 123 pounds, will not start. Caughnawaga has top weight, 127 pounds, with such horses as Africander, Lord of the Vale, Dainty, Gun-fire, Eugenia Burch, Major Daingerfield and Proper to beat. The Western colt Oiseau must pick up 132 pounds in the Prospect Handicap for twoyear-olds, at about six furlongs, and meet Woodsaw, Burnt Hills, Wild Mint, Flyback, Chrysitis and others. In the steeplechase Royelle, Lavator and Headmaster may fight Royelle, Lavator and Headmaster may fight it out. Some good sprinters will start in the first race, at about six furlongs, including Old England, King Pepper, Monograph and Geranium. Maiden two-year-olds will face the barrier in the fifth event, at about six furlongs. Blucher, Bella Signora, Raiment and Princess Eris appearing to be the best. In the last race, for platers at a mile and an eighth, Reveille, Stolen Moments, Proceeds and Gravina will find favor. The entries follow:

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

CASSIDY'S STARTING CAUSES NO END OF FAULT FINDING.

Crowd Grumbles Over Send Off in Four Events-Toscan Said to Be "Doped" and His Owner's Entries Refused-E. R. Thomas Tackles "The Humming Bird."

The starting of Mars Cassidy in four races at Gravesend yesterday caused intense dis-satisfaction. The trouble began when Ascension was left at the post in the first race. The mare had been well played and her backers were hot under the collar for the unfortunate incident the crowd cooled off. The start of the second race was good but the send-off in the third was one of the worst ever seen on a metropolitan track. The barrier was fixed directly in front of the betting ring and the crowd surged around it in large numbers. When Mr. Cassidy let the barrier go, Martinmas, the favorite, beat the gate on the run. Wotan and Little Em followed him, but Adriutha, New York and Sir Lynnewood, the other starters, were so completely tangled up that they never had a look-in. Instantly there was a howl of derision from the crowd, while the women in the grand stand hissed like serpents. "Robbery!" roared those who had bet on the horses that had been practically left.

As the starter left his box on the rail and proceeded to the judges' stand, there was a chorus of catcalls and uncomplimentary remarks seldom heard on a racetrack. The commotion did not die out until long after Martinmas had won and the red board had been adjusted.

There was nothing the matter with the start in the Seabreeze Stakes, but there was another roar of disapproval when the gate went up for the fifth event. There were fourteen starters and ten of them were not in motion when Fairy Dance, Coy Maid, Inspiration and Sumatra went off with a rush. Sumatra was quickly knocked back while Bravery rushed up to a place where she was a contender for the rest of the journey.

"How long will the public stand for this sort of thing?" asked hundreds of one another, but the question was unanswerable. Again, in the last race, there was increased bitterness when Proceeds, a hot second choice, was left, as well as Gay Lothario. Half of the big field was not ready when the gate was sprung and the crowd went away growling and finding no end of fault. Yet Mr Cassidy, it has been officially announced by the stewards of the Jockey Club, will do the starting at Morris Park, while C. J. Fitzgerald, whose work this year has filled the public with supreme confidence, will remain on the ground. Good starting is essential. Without it, there is sure to be a falling off in attendance and in the play in the ring.
Just why the policy of letting well enough alone has been ignored cannot be readily understood by racegoers in general.

That the practice of "doping" horses still exists has been an open secret among turfmen in spite of the vigilance of the turf officials. But the eagle eyes of the stewards and a veterinary surgeon in regular attendance for just such cases detected something wrong with Toscan, who ran third in the first race, carrying colors of S. A. Pumphrey. In the paddock before he went to the post the colt was so restive that he attracted attention. His eyeballs were sticking out of his head and he was trying to kick everybody in reach. Down in the betting ring somebody was betting on Toscan to such an extent that he was backed down from 15 to 1 to nines. No sooner had the colt finished in third place than the stewards ordered an investigation. The veterinary who examined the colt reported that, in his opinion, stimulants had been used, whereupon the stewards decided

"You are sure you do not want to bet any more, Mr. Thomas?" "No, that will be sufficient," was the response, as the owner of Hermis hurried off. Then Tyler was swamped by a mob that wanted Dazzle at any price and all were accommodated. Among the good things handed out for th Among the good things handed out for the fifth race was a filly named Inspiration, by Ayrshire—Sister Mary II., who was bred in England. The late William C. Whitney sent the dam to England to be bred to Ayrshire, and when his stable was sold at auction last spring Insuration was knocked down to John J. Hyland for $1,300. She was afterward sold to J. L. McGinnis for $1,600, and yesterday was her first start. She had worked like lightning, and though her owner only had a small bet on her, the "clockers" only had a small bet on her, the "clockers" who had seen her remarkable trials backed her down from tens to fives. She showed early speed, but soon dropped out of it. McChesney was out for a long gallop yes terday morning and showed that he will be fit to race again soon. Trainer Taylor said that "Big Mac" would probably go to the post at Morris Park and also at Jamaica and Aqueduct. Martinmas, who won the third race, is an English bred colt and was bought out of a selling race on the other side for $1,000.

John Huggins has purchased Thomas Monahan's house at Sheepshead Bay. It is said that Huggins will train for H. B. Du next season, as John W. Rogers will handle the stable that will race in the name and colors of Harry Payne Whitney. Pronta, the winner of the last race, was entered to be sold for $1,000. Billy Dubois bid her up to $1,600, and quit, whereupon R. A. Rainey, owner of Sir Briller, raised the bid to $1,700. Then U. Z. De Arman, the owner of the Falsetto mare, bid an extra $5 and kept Martinmas to victory. He did not do so well with Sir Briller, who was outside of the money Previous winners of the Scabridge Stakes were Lela May, Gallop, Chesapeake, Port-chester, Nomad, Integrity, Galilee, Pepper, Damien, Bromo, Nosey, Alpen, Greenock, Ethics, Andy Williams and Wild Thyme. Dick Bernard, who won yesterday, was heavily backed by his owner, Smathers. Atwood, who ran in the Seabreeze, was pulled up by E. Walsh in the stretch. as the

on Long Island. LOCUST VALLEY, L. I., Sept. 50.—Under weather conditions that were almost ideal the North Shore Horse Show Association the North Shore Horse Show Association held its annual show to-day on the spacious grounds near here. Sixteen classes, in which some of the crack show horses of Long Island and Manhattan competed, were success-fully passed upon and the same number of classes will be judged to-morrow when the show will end.

Amateurs drove or rode in all the events, and in the saddle and hunter classes women also rode and succeeded in piloting a number of horses to victory. In the class for single horses between 14.1 hands and 15.1 hands seventeen of the crack horses competed and seventeen of the crack horses competed and were handled by well known drivers. Edwin D. Morgan drove Duchess; Clarence H. Mackey, Attraction, and Miss Mollie C. Maxwell of the Rockaway Hunt Club drove Catseye. Mrs. E. R. Ladew's Katzenjammer kid took the blue, while the Corinthian prize was awarded to Edwin D. Morgan. The innovation of offering a Corinthian prize to non-widness in avantal of the classes. to non-winners in several of the classes was a marked success. Edward R. Ladew, Mrs. Ladew, Edwin D.

Morgan, R. F. Carman and Herbert Pratt carried off the honors in the carriage classes, ful with his saddle horses.

Morgan, R. F. Carman and Herbert Pratt carried off the honors in the carriage classes, and Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., was very successful with his saddle horses.

In Class 1, for roadsters, Mrs. E. R. Ladew's Sadie McGregor carried off first prize. Twelve teams competed in Class No. 10, for pairs of horses over 15.1 hands. Not until the teams had passed in front of the judges for several rounds of the ring was a winner placed. The blue ribbon went to Edward Enleriems's Rissing and Ned Alliton.

Saddle horses over 15.3 hands brought out a field of seventeen excellent horses. The first prize went to Miss Gertrude Sheldon's Ace of Spades.

The Meadow Brook colony and the other well known colonies of the north country of Long Island were out in force, driving to the grounds in breaks, traps and four-inhands. Among some of the well-known people were George P. Eustis, Miss Eustis, Mrs. H. Van Rensselser Kennedey, Miss May Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., Miss Poet, L. The Rainbow has won one and the Virginia none. Yesterday's race was managed by the regatta committee of the New York Yacht Club and was sailed or the New York Yacht Club and was sailed over the usual course, starting off Mott's Point. The wind was strong from the west-northwest. The boats at times had their lee rails down and they made fast time over the course.

northwest. The boats at times had their lee rails down and they made fast time over the course.

The start was made at 2:07:00 and all were close together as they crossed the line, the Yankee being in the lead, with the Rainbow next. It was a reach to the first mark off Shippan Point, and the yachts carried only lower canvas. The Yankee sent up a jib topsail in stops, but the wind broke it out, and it was taken in at once. At the first mark the times were: Yankee, 2:381:3; Rainbow, 3:03:50.

The Virginian had lost her jib, which was blown away, and she withdrew from the race. It was another reach to Parsonage Point, and there the times were: Yankee, 5:28:00; Rainbow, 3:44:30. Across the Sound the hoats had a run, and the Rainbow gained a little before the wind. The Yankee wen the race by 4 minutes 36 seconds. The summary:

NEW YORKS AND BOSTONS BOTH FAIL TO SCORE.

Chicagos Climbing Up in the American League Race-Clevelands Keep Up Their Winning Streak, and the Philadelphias and Detroits Break Even. The Chicagos are making a strong bid for the American League pennant. They are playing fine ball at home, and yesterday they shut out the New Yorks. The latter however, kept their lead, as Boston was shu out by St. Louis. Only one Eastern team won, Philadelphia dividing a double header with Detroit. The spurting Clevelands blanked the Washingtons. The results: Chicago, 4; New York, 0.

St. Louis, S; Boston, O. Cleveland, S; Washington, O. Philadelphia, 9; Detroit, 4—First Game. Detroit, 5; Philadelphia, 4—Second Game. STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

CHICAGO (A. L.), 4: NEW YORK (A. L.), 0. CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Dr. White's superb pitching blanked New York with three hits. Chesbro was knocked out in three innings, and Puttman pitched fine ball until the close, aside from a few bases on balls. Not a New York batter got beyond second during the game. Successive hits by Green, Jones, Callahan and Davis in the third inning drove, in three Chicago runs. Sullivan split his hand and gave way to Heydon. The score:

GAME.

All sorts of hitting, from bunts to home runs, were seen at the Polo Grounds yesterday, also a great deal of careless playing. In the first game the New Yorks made nineteen hits and yet lost. McGinnity and Elliotte were easy marks. McGinnity retired in the seventh inning after a home run had been made off him, and Elliotte's pitching was riddled and shredded. Their support was in keeping. Welmer was even easier, but the team behind him was more disposed to give an initiation of the real thing than the New Yorks. However, they, too, were in a trance in the ninth. A one handed stop by Evers and Devlin's neat third base play were attractive exceptions to the prevailing raggedness. The score:

—SECOND GAME.

The second game was an improvement, though the Cubs fooled along after taking a lead in the first inning, and the New Yorks were never fully awake. A base on balls, Dunn's failure to cover second on a force, and Tinker's home run gave the Chicagos three runs at the start. They made their other two by clean hitting, including a triple and another homer.

A base on bails to McGann, a sacrifice, an out and a wild pitch gave New York a run in the fourth, and Browne's homer, following Bowerman's infield single, produced two more in the seventh. Shutte did fine work on files in left field, and Tinker made a hair raising stop. The game lasted only seven innings—plenty long enough. The score:

Mike O'Neill, the St. Louis pitcher, was batted hard by the Brooklyns yesterday, and the latter managed to get a game from the Cardinals. They shut the visitors out, Mitchell being steady in the box for the home team, which played an even and strong game. Batch was prominent at the bat, harvesting three singles and a two bagger. Jordan was equally prominent in the field. He had fifteen chances and did not overlook a single one of them. Eleven of the chances were assists, and Jordan's playing was as finished as it was extensive. The score:
